

Join the lifestyle revolution

Sparcs

Senior UI/UX-Design

Description

Looking for your next challenge? Join our young and disruptive startup during the most exciting phase and have a real impact shaping the market for health & fitness.

Sparcs is the most social health & fitness app, building on the power of social engagement to help everyone achieve a more active lifestyle. We are looking for an experienced and entrepreneurial Mobile UI/UX Designer to join our interdisciplinary team and help us create a unique app experience. You'll take the lead on creating breathtaking visuals and interfaces as well as smooth and intuitive user flows. Designing at Sparcs means crafting an app that helps millions of users around the world live a more active life.

Ideally, you

- Care deeply about your craft, down to every last detail
- Bring a great level of empathy to understand users, their pain points, and desires
- Stay up-to-date on the latest and greatest design principles and trends — and can translate them into exceptional work
- Have 4+ years' experience working in mobile product design
- Know how to lead cross-functional projects from concept to execution
- Are proficient with tools like Figma, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe XD, ...
- Have prior experience with health & fitness products and/or social networks
- Bonus (but not necessary): Illustration, Brand Identity Design, Motion Design, UX Copy

Our offer

- Competitive salary and the opportunity to participate in the company's success through our stock option plan
- A professionally nourishing and creative working atmosphere
- Modern office with everything you need to bring your best work to life
- Flexible working hours
- Visionary, experienced, and entrepreneurial team of nerds and crazies
- Teambuilding activities (did you ever play games in VR?)
- Unlimited coffee & fruits to fuel your creative energy

And, above all, the opportunity to build the #1 social network for a better and more active life.

Ready for the adventure? Reach out, we can't wait to meet you! 🙌
